WASHINGTON

The Bee
—A—GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL. XV

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1897.

No. 48.

HON. JOHN W. ROSS.
A Noble Roman.—See fourth page.

HON. JOHN B. WIGHT.
Our New Commissioner.—See page 4.

THEY SAY.

The colored Republicans are uneasy.

Col. W. A. Pledger will go abroad.

Put this in your pipe and smoke it.

There is a new recorder to be appointed.

THE BEE would give his name, but it would be a breach of confidence.

Deleware will get her share, don't be disappointed.

The recorder will be an Ohioan or a Delawarean.

A few places will be given out shortly.

Be truthful in all you say.

It is a bad thing to indorse a man and then become a candidate yourself.

Chickens will come home to roost.

It is the great man who doesn't see small things.

If you are successful, you will have plenty of friends.

Be useful citizens.

Col. L. M. Saunders is making a bold fight.

THE BEE is the people's paper.

The only journal that has its subscription books open to all comers.

If you want to rent your rooms, advertise in the BEE.

The President will send in a disappointment soon.

Senator Mark Hanna, the boys say, is chilly across the chest.

Senator Hanna knows what he is doing.

Those who want to go abroad can do so.

The United States is large enough for the BEE.

Be what you are and nothing more.

Friendship is but an empty dream.

The negro democrats, so-called are on the anxious seat.

They ought to taste the bitter with the sweet.

Colored republicans had to suffer.

These vipers ought to go.

Many a deserving colored man is on the bricks on account of the negro democrats attack.

The nomination for a new recorder of deeds will go in about May 1st.

There will be a re-organization of the office.

John C. Dancy of North Carolina, is all right.

He is a young man of ability.

Some colored republicans in Ohio are dissatisfied.

The election last week showed that.

Cincinnati went democratic by a large majority.

The next House of Representatives will no doubt be democratic, if the republicans don't change their tactics.

There is danger ahead so, look out.

Editor Fortune can always see the bad that is said about a man, but not the good.

Some men are very small, friend Fortune.

Will he explain what Mr. Bruce has done to him?

There is to be a change in the trusteeship of the public schools.

Mrs. Dr. Richardson will succeed Mrs. Terrell.

Mrs. Richardson is a lady of the highest attainments and a thorough educator.

Be sure you are right and then go ahead.

Lem Bailey is making a still hunt. The High school is very quiet now.

Miss Lucy Moten will be transferred from the Normal school next year.

No doubt a change in that department is necessary.

OUR LADY DENTIST.

Miss Mamie Williams, one of the most accomplished and refined young Washingtonians, who graduated some time ago, in dentistry, has been licensed to practice her profession and she is an enterprising young lady. She has hung out her shingle and has entered actively into practice.

She is one of the most popular young ladies in this city and it is greatly to her credit that she has chosen such a profession, which will relieve many young miss from embarrassment in seeking the services of males.

THE BEE is proud of her as well as the people. Accept congratulations.

Mrs. Nella Daggett, of Boston, Mass. has written a book on "Fancy Work and Art Decorations."

Mr. E. Murray, the popular caterer, who has been confined to his bed with pneumonia for several weeks, is able to be out again.

Mrs. I. L. Thomas, wife of the pastor of Asbury has been confined to her room with the gripe.

A delegation of discharged printers called on Public Printer Palmer this week and received very encouraging words.

Mrs. Geo. S. Contee of Denver, Col., was entertained by the Misses Chase and Merritt on last Saturday evening.

Invitations are out for the anniversary celebration of the crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Neal, which will take place Tuesday evening May 4, at their residence 1250 New York street.

Rev. J. I. Loving has been called to the pastorate of the Enon Baptist church on Capitol Hill. Rev. Loving is an able divine and will no doubt give general satisfaction.

The sudden demise of Rev. Ewd. Willis is mourned by a host of friends. He was greatly beloved by all who knew him.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

The number of colored men who will be appointed?

The outcome of the Civil Service law?

Why is it that a man will become a candidate for office after he has in-dorsed another man?

What will be the result of the Mississippi race?

Will Col. Hill knock out his opponents?

Why should colored applicants be compelled to place the hospital under the Civil Service?

If the Florida Colored Editor is not anxious to be with Mrs. Jacques?

If it would not be a good thing to compel Presidents, after they have been elected to enter a Civil Service examination.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

E. M. Hewlett on the Bench.

The colored lawyers united.

An explanation from T. T. Fortune.

The Florida Colored Editor seem to be less anxious about Mr. Jacques' private business, give himself a rest.

The colored people honest in the support of colored enterprises.

IT IS RUMORED.

The negro editor in Florida who caused the separation of Prof. Jacques seems to be chagrined because Mrs. Jacques has married another man.

The Colored Editor is more anxious about the divorced wife of Prof. J., than he is.

This same colored editor has been kicking himself to death about his name. It is the best evidence in the world that he has none.

John P. Green's name will go to the Senate next week.

Ex-State Senator Allain will be taken care of by this administration.

The republicans of Mississippi will come to grief.

ALLAIN'S GOOD WORK.

Ex-Senator Allain came home from the National Capital to make speeches for Sears and the Republican ticket. He addressed a half dozen meetings in his aggressive and forceful style and did much to add enthusiasm to the campaign. His application for the position of Fourth Auditor received many strong endorsements while here.

HEROIC GREECE.

BY H. EUGENE WILSON.

FOR THE BEE.

Heroic Greece defies the world, And Crete is in distress; The weakling lifts its bleeding hand, To brother man at rest.

Her cry is wafted 'long the coast, Across the watery sea, To all christian nations; And Crete thou shalt be free.

Bravest Greece, protect thy nursing Cut off Turkey's brutal hand, Hurl the carnal tyrant to death; And peace shall reign throughout the land.

Marshaled near the dimly island, Fleet and ship at anchor lay, Watching e'er a chance to hasten; And check bold Greece in her array.

God, protect the little nation, Whose dying word we hear to-day, Let freedom's flag once more wave o'er, The Cretan's shore that far away.

Mr. E. Murray, who has been sick for three weeks with pneumonia is able to be out again, greatly improved to the gratification of his many friends. Mrs. Murray, his wife, has also been quite sick, and who has recovered sufficiently to resume her duties in her business.

CINCINNATI'S COLORED CADET.

[Special to The Post.]

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 12.—This city will probably be represented in the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., by a colored cadet. Richard C. Bundy, the elder son of Rev. Charles Bundy, presiding elder of the A. M. E. Church of this city, has been selected by Representative William B. Shattuck, of the First District, to fill a vacancy created in the honor conference upon this city some time ago. The Superintendent of public schools to arrange for a competitive examination open to all lads, who might choose to enter. This examination was held in the latter part of March, and when the examiners completed their task, it was ascertained that young Bundy and George Austin, another colored boy, led the list.

In reporting to Gen. Shattuck, one of the examiners wrote a rather ambiguous letter, stating his opinion that none of the boys were qualified for examination at Annapolis. Accordingly, Gen. Shattuck announced through a local newspaper that none of the candidates could pass. This brought out a protest from young Bundy, whose protest caused the examiner's report to be re-read, from which it was seen that he meant none of the white candidates could pass the examination. Accordingly, Gen. Shattuck has named Bundy for the cadetship. The other boy is now barred by the age limit from becoming an alternate by his own statement.

The appointment of a negro at Annapolis has always caused quite a stir, and no colored cadet has ever succeeded in staying there four years and graduating. They usually "bilged" or dropped for failing to reach the required rank on the entrance examination. Several years ago a colored cadet passed the first year examination before he was "bilged." Young Bundy is a bright scholar, and has high standing in the Woodward High School, where he expects to graduate in June. He intends to enter the academy in September.

COLORED PRINTERS' CALL.

Public Printer Palmer received a delegation of colored printers Friday morning, who were discharged under the last democratic administration. The delegation consisted of R. F. Chisolm, Edward G. Nalle, A. St. A. Smith, H. D. Fryer, and Syphax. Mr. Palmer received them cordially and assured the delegation that he would do everything in his power to relieve them from the strain under which they are now laboring, the anxiety for reinstatement.

Fielden Smith, in The Western Outlook, among other things has written "that a cringing scribbler of the Colored American takes the noble hearted and brave Bishop A. M. E. Turner to task, but his hypocrisy is so glaring that he signally failed to make a point against the bishop."

There is a popular complaint against the management of the Normal school.

MORE COLORED DEMOCRATIC LITERATURE.

THE DEMOCRATIC ORGAN. HOW COLORED REPUBLICANS WERE ATTACKED.

Prospectus of the National Democrat. Organ of the Negro National Democratic League, a weekly journal in the interest of the educational, industrial, moral, religious, literary and political development of the race to be published every Wednesday, at Washington, D. C., by the Executive committee of the Negro National Democratic League Publishing Company, beginning September 6, 1895.

OFFICERS: H. C. C. Astwood, of New York, president, and managing editor; C. H. Taylor, of Kansas, vice president and business manager; E. L. Dawkins of Florida, secretary; Dr. J. R. Riley of Washington, D. C., treasurer, L. C. Moore, of Mississippi, general and traveling agent; Rev. P. H. White, of New York, local agent; H. C. Smith, of Alabama, second vice president and assistant editor.

DIRECTORS: Travis Glasgow, of New Jersey, J. Ross Stewart, of New York, P. H. White, New York, R. K. Washington, of South Carolina, Smith Wormley, D. C.

OBJECT AND PRINCIPLES OF THE PAPER. The Executive committee of the Negro National Democratic League, seeing the necessity of a National organ with which to defend the interest of the race and the principles of the party with which it is identified, deem it wise and necessary to establish an organ under the above named caption.

The policy of the paper will be strictly democratic, pledging itself to the reform principles inaugurated by President Cleveland, upon the tariff and financial questions.

It will vigorously insist upon national aid for the education of the ignorant masses of the race, to wipe out if possible, the appalling growth of ignorance and crime, believing that the education of the masses is the only remedy, and that it is of vital importance to the Nation, and tending good government.

Believing that it is paramount in its tendencies toward National security, then our large and extravagant pension system, we shall urge upon our democratic legislators in Congress to formulate an educational bill looking to that end and that the Secretary of Interior make Secretary of Interior and Public Instruction, who will supervise the distribution of the National fund among the states and for the interest of our race in those states, where separate schools are necessary, that colored teachers be employed exclusively in those schools.

It will insist upon the rights of our people in the South, that mob violence be overthrown and that the law be supreme for punishment of crime of whatever nature, and that our identity with the dominant political party will be more effectual in bringing this about than past political methods. It will condemn in unmeasured terms, the awful and diabolical crimes of outraging and raping defenseless women, without regard to race or color, using every means to preserve the sanctity of the homes and the families.

The educational, industrial and moral development of the race, will be the most important feature of the paper, whilst liberal space and encouragement will be given to literary productions of the race and the religious teaching of our christian bodies. The political aspect of the paper being strictly in the interest of negro democracy, we appeal to and expect liberal patronage and generous aid from our white democratic friends, until our publishing department shall meet the requirements of the paper.

The paper will be conducted upon strictly business principles, and honestly and correctly managing in all of its parts. Our general agent, Hon. L. C. Moore of Mississippi, will begin at once to solicit subscriptions, advertisements and financial aid from our democratic friends. Also the local agent, P. H. White, or any other person, duly authorized by the general agent, and countersigned by the chairman of the executive committee, to aid the putting in motion the "Flying wheel of Negro Democracy."

The paper will be controlled by the executive committee of the Negro National Democratic League. Its first issue will be September 6, 1895, and every Wednesday thereafter.

By order of executive committee, H. C. C. Astwood, Chairman, E. L. Dawkins, Secretary.

MILLINERY.

This is millinery week and every lady will require some kind of new headgear for Easter Sunday. We don't say it must be an exclusive one, because people nowadays, as the old saying goes, cut their garment according to the cloth they have. Our line of ready trimmed and untrimmed millinery is here to suit the masses. We can produce hats and bonnets which will equal imported ones, and cost less than half. Our untrimmed stock is very select and at the same low in price.

We have some very choice things for Misses and Children.

DOTS BY THE WAY.

By W. C. O. JACQUES.

Rev. J. H. Bailey, Pastor of the Union Baptist Church, one of the largest in Elizabeth, is doing a grand work in the way of building up his Master's kingdom. The first Sunday in this month he baptised ten, administered the Lord's supper and the house was packed to its utmost capacity.

Rev. D. E. Robinson, is pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, (Elizabeth) is doing well, and everything is moving on smoothly. He is a fine biblical scholar and is doing much to uplift his race. Rev. Robinson baptised nine on Sunday. His church is in a prosperous condition under his guide.

Mr. H. C. Williams, the tonsorial artist, has one of the leading barber shops in Elizabeth, where all can be accommodated. He is a thorough business man and a credit to his race and himself, of which we are proud to state.

W. C. O. Jacques, President of the Negro Art Co., of Washington, D. C. and Mr. B. F. Limberger one of the leading teachers of the company were made members of the Rosel Ft No. 625 U. of T. R., under the direction of the State Deputy, Lewis Biggers.

Mr. L. Biggers, State Deputy of N. J., at large of U. O. of T. R., is doing a grand work in spreading the influence of the True Reformers among our people. He is a thorough race man.

Dr. Carter, pastor of Bethany Baptist church, is one of the leading ministers of Newark, N. J., and has the largest congregation in the city, and is doing a good work for the master.

Mr. Solomon Brown is one of the leading colored hackmen in Elizabeth. He is a good business man, and is one of the leading officers of Shiloh Baptist church.

We were pleased to meet the Rev. S. M. White of Red Bank, N. J., who has recently taken charge of the leading Baptist church there, is doing so much to elevate his people. He is highly respected by his people, and since he has been there the dawn of a new day of enlightenment is appearing among them. Rev. White is a fine scholar and a good preacher.

Rev. J. W. Jeffress, pastor of Bright Hope Baptist church at Princeton, N. J., has done a good work in that place for his church. In one year's time he has raised over $3000, and seated the church with opera seats at a cost of $380 also put in a pool. He has added a large number to the church and is doing a grand work for his people there. He has brought this church to the front.

JENNY LIND'S TERRIBLE NERVOUSNESS.

A reminiscent article on Jenny Lind and her home life has been prepared by her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Maude, for publication in the May Ladies' Home Journal. It is said to be filled with interesting memories of the famous singer, and is noteworthy also being the first view we have of her through the eyes of her adoring daughter. Mrs. Maude, brings to light the fact that Jenny Lind was always nervous and overstrung before events—just before singing in a new opera or oratorio, but was quite calm when the very moment of action arrived.

The meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Baptist Convention, which was to have been held in this city has been postponed.

The funeral of Miss Rosa Banks, took place at the Shiloh Baptist Church, last Monday at 2 o'clock. Miss Banks died Saturday April 10, after a painful illness. Rev. J. A. Taylor preached the funeral.

THE SIDE

Honest people seldom have secrets to tell.

A happy home is earth's picture of heaven.

Watch your friends. Enemies will make themselves known.

Beware of the person who is always ready to tell you something confidential.

The officious person is usually the one who delights in repeating unkind words.

A loud laugh betrays a vacant mind. A careless person is not worthy of his hire.

Kind loving sisters have a great deal to do with the cultivation of a loving brother.

Inquiry—I do not care for lady physicians, although they may know their business.

Hilda.—I have the greatest respect for working girls and am glad to count you among them.

Emma.—I do not believe in lucky stones. It is said that the opal is lucky to those whose birth stone it is.

Black grenadine is the fad, lined with changeable taffeta silk, which can be had in all the Spring shades.

Our girls cannot expect proper recognition except they train their minds to do the duty that lies nearest them.

If we should all follow the precept

"know thyself," we would not find it so difficult to attend to other people's affairs.

Light gray gloves will be worn with gray dresses and the ever-ready tans will be worn with most any color, costume.

When men are impolite to women or speak of them in a light cynical manner it shows that they have no respect for their mother or sister.

J. E.—For a man to marry a girl and still let her live with her parents is not just the thing a good husband would do. Never marry in haste.

A splendid Hair Restorer can be had at 205 O street, n. w. It restores the hair on bald spots and strengthens the roots. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Country Girl.—Simply say to the gentleman, who has escorted you to a place of amusement, "thank you very much and I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you again."

Unkind words are largely a bad habit. People can say funny things and at the same time very malicious.

Clever speeches often cause one to lose their best friends.

Lena.—The idea of wanting a friend to work for you without pay is absurd.

Some people think friends and parents need no compensation, such being the case, it is better to be a foe.

N. A.—Don't talk your home affairs to outsiders. Strangers are not interested in your troubles, and again it is not just the most entertaining topic that one can talk on.

Rev.—A thoroughly womanly woman can do more towards helping a college or school girl to become a woman than a thoroughly manly man can do. Ladies make better teachers than men.

A pretty commencement dress can be made of organdie, trimmed with

In the future, I want all the brave men to rally around THE BEE, who is here to uphold your colors.

Please pay attention to this.

HORN, THE TAILOR.

Here is the man to whom every other man should go for clothing. Every one admits that garments made to measure wear longer and give better satisfaction than those sold in the stores. Not only that but they fit better and look better. There was a time when the difference in price barred a great many from enjoying the luxury of tailor-made clothing. But at present, with such opportunities as are offered by Horn, every man can and should have his clothes made to order.

The surest way to prove this to your own satisfaction is to go to Horn and ask him for samples of his goods. Take these to ready-made clothing stores and when you have found similar qualities, compare the prices. I'll guarantee that Horn's price for perfectly made garments will not be higher than the "ready-made" price. Now, why will men, possibly you, too, go to the stores when a reputable tailor offers you better values for the same money.

There is but one such tailor in Washington. Others who attempt to imitate Horn's bargains cannot be called reputable, because their goods are sent out of the city to be made up. The measurements are taken here, but the garments are made in Philadelphia or Baltimore sweat-shops, by women and girls. Such work is no better than that put into ready-made clothing. At Horn's you have this certainty: The man who measures you will cut the goods and your garments will be made up under his supervision in Horn's own shop. You are guaranteed a fit and that goods, linings, and workmanship shall be exactly as represented.

Last week Horn received from New York about twenty-five styles of light weight worsteds. They are the finest goods of this kind that he has ever offered you. The patterns are stylish and very pretty. The general run of tailors would ask you $35 or $40 for such a suit. Horn wishes to make a special attraction of these goods to bring new customers to his store. He has made the price $25. You can't realize what a handsome suit he will make you for this money until you see one. This is your opportunity to prepare for Easter—don't miss it.

Now, if you don't feel able to spend $25 for your suit, remember that Horn always carries a line of goods from which he will make you a good suit for $10. His styles at this price are just as big bargains as ever, and thousands of you know what satisfactory values these have always been. It won't cost you anything to go to Horn's and see what he offers—the chances are that you'll save a lot of money. His number is 637 F street.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
